

Poole Hospital and The Royal Bournemouth & Christchurch Hospitals plan to engage more patients, carers and families in developing our services. Twenty staff completed a training course run by the Point of Care Foundation and are now ready to support projects that put patients and staff firmly at the centre of our service and pathway redesign work.